HELPS TO THE USE OF THE
Presbyterian Book of Praise

Prepared under the direction of the Music Committee of the Presbyterian Church in Canada.

THE suggestions which appear in the following columns indicate the rate of speed at which each tune ought to be sung in relation to the words with which it is there associated.

In deciding upon the tempo the compilers have, in every instance, reached a decision after most careful consideration of the views of the great authorities on church music, and in keeping with the nature of the thoughts expressed by the words, the structure of the tune itself, and the "congregational" purpose in view.

The marks indicate the speed considered best for use in a congregation of average size. When the number present considerably exceeds 400 or 500, the speed may, where deemed advisable, be lessened. When, on the other hand, comparatively few are present, as also at Prayer Meetings, Sabbath Schools, and Young People's gatherings, the time may frequently, with advantage, be slightly accelerated.

The speed has been indicated in two ways: The first column specifies the number of times in which the standard form of note as printed is to be sung in one minute. Thus, if ♩ be the standard form of note of a tune (as is usually the case in the BOOK OF PRAISE), $\text{♩}.60$ means that one full second will be occupied in the singing of it, while $\text{♩}.92$ would indicate that about three quarters of one second would be allowed. As an alternative form, the second column indicates the number of seconds which would be occupied in singing the tune from beginning to end in strict time.

No provision has been made for variation from the strict time, as this must be determined by the character of the successive thoughts to be expressed. It need hardly be stated that the "Amen," which is not included in the tempo given, must always be sung reverently, and in very moderate time.

An earnest effort has been made to avoid at once that unseemly haste which borders on the irreverent, and an equally objectionable heaviness; and to attain a reverent mean, in keeping with the grave sweet melody of the Sanctuary, and an interesting variety of speed suited to the structure of each tune, and the character of each Psalm and Hymn.

Cordial thanks are due R. A. BECKET, Esq., Montreal, who, by unceasing labour and patient investigation, has rendered very valuable service in the preparation of these helps.

ALEXANDER MACMILLAN.

TORONTO, April, 1899.
